witnesses more to examine in the Wirz trial. Their testimeny will be on particular points. A few only have as yet been subpensed for the defense. It is now supposed that the trial will terminate about the first of October. The first negro witness was examined to day, and he was remarkably clear in his narrative of chance. chauce.

On the cross-examination the witness said he did not know that Capt. Wirz had forbidden the acceptance of money.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW-YORK, Sept. 1, 1865.

To His Excellency Reuben E. Fennon.

Dear Sin: I am in receipt of certain charges preferred by James Gregory of this city against me, as a member of the Street Cleaning Commission. May I not ask you to fix the period for examination at an earlier date than the 26th inst.? For myself, I am ready for an immediate trial; and, unless you change the time, will have to rest under the imputation (t) my mind) a cruel and unnatural length of time. You immediate reply will extremely oblige, very truly yours.

Coroner Gover yesterday, at the Eleventh Precinct Station House, held an it quest on the hody of Julius Hoppel, the hoy who was shet on Monday night in Pittat, near Stantonest. Several witnesses were examined, and the evidence went to show that at 10 oclock on the evening in question the deceased, with a number of other children, was playing on a wagon in front of the residence of his parents, and had just turned to climb down to the walk, when the roport of a pistol was heard, and he was observed to fail. The mother of the child picked him up and carried him into the house. A physician was sent for but the wounded boy died within two minutes after being taken into the house. One of the witnesses was positive that the shot came from the side of the street opposite to where the children were playing.
